How Angelina URNS BRAD ON!

Brad's phone calls to Jennifer get Angelina hot and bothered. And everyone knows what happens to naughty boys!

their lusty love-making in a luxury Kenyan resort? "It sounded like a wounded animal," said one of the alarmed insiders who responded to the lovers' aria.

THREATENED?

So why should Angelina, so confident of her sexual allure, feel threatened just because Brad, 41, is just talking to Jen? It's never that simple when it comes to dealing with exes. "On one hand," a source tells Star, "Angelina understands that Brad and Jen have a history. But she wants that history to be in the past."

Basically tells her it's none of her business." Brad's rep denies the story.

"Brad and Jen spent seven years together," says another source, "and they didn't break up because they hated each other. They broke up because the marriage was no longer working for either of them."

And that's a fate that Angelina is determined to prevent for herself.
